Tha Boord o Ulstèr-Scotch

Newtownards Silver Band wish to thank the ULSTER-SCOTS AGENCY for the grant received recently of £1,600.00 to cover overheads associated with the current COVID 19 EPIDEMIC.

This project has been made possible by the support of the ULSTER-SCOTS AGENCY.
We would also like to thank Ms Audrey Freen and Mr Derek Reaney for all their help.

The following was published in our local Chronical paper this week.

Covid grant for Silver Band

THE Newtownards Silver Band has received a grant from the Ulster Scots 19 Resilience Fund to the tune of £1600 which will cover a percentage of their overheads associated with the current Covid 19 epidemic. This grant has been made possible by the Ulster Scots Agency who worked along with the band's honorary secretary, Grenville Francis.
